Senior Web Designer · Landing pages & AI-assisted build

Berlin, Germany · 15+ years in design · EN · PT · DE (B1)

Senior web designer with 15+ years across digital design, advertising and brand. At Aklamio, I design, build and ship B2B referral-marketing pages and customer portals, from brief to live page, using HTML/CSS, Contentful CMS and Material UI.

I work AI-first, using generative AI and vibe coding with Claude to build and QA pages faster, with a marketing background and a sharp eye for hierarchy and polish.

Professional Experience

Senior Web Designer — Jan 2026 – Present

Aklamio · promoted from Web Designer

- Own B2B referral-marketing pages, customer portals and integration-driven web projects from brief to live page, leading visual and UI execution.
- Delivered 40 hosted pages from 67 integration tickets and handled 11 churn processes, often independently.
- Use generative AI and vibe coding with Claude to build pages and QA automation: daily portal health checks and asset checks.
- Build Material UI themes and reusable patterns that turn brand requirements into production-ready interfaces.
- Partner with product and engineering on requirements, QA and releases.

Web Designer — 2021 – 2025

Aklamio

- Designed and built responsive web pages for a wide range of partner brands, moving my own designs into code.
- Worked across HTML/CSS, Contentful CMS, JSON config and Material UI styling.
- Turned brand guidelines into reusable components, working with developers via Git/GitLab and Jira.

Project Manager — 2017 – 2020

Language International, Berlin · promoted from International Student Advisor

- Ran website content in the CMS and a custom CRM, including translation of the full site into 27 languages.
- Managed a team of software developers with Agile and Kanban: backlog, user stories, bug triage and sprint reviews.
- Hired and coordinated contractors; owned budgets, deadlines and briefings.

Community Manager / Content Creator — Earlier career

Procter & Gamble Brasil

Managed community and content for nine brands, balancing brand consistency with audience needs.

Art Director — Earlier career

Editora Abril

Created visual concepts and ads for print, direct marketing and brand communication.
